The Museum School at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition.

The School was represented at the Louisiana Purchase Exposition, Philip L. Hale being in charge of the installation. The School made something less than three hundred separate exhibits, in competition with all the principal art schools in the country, and was awarded a grand prize—the highest award made. It was conceded to have the best exhibit in its class, and representatives of foreign institutions have, in consequence, since visited the School for information in respect to its methods.

Mr. Thomas Allen, Chairman of the School Council, was chosen Chairman of the International Jury. C. Howard Walker, Director of the Department of Design, was given a grand prize for architectural work in connection with the buildings. Frank W. Benson, Instructor in Drawing and Painting from the Nude Model, was awarded a gold prize. Edmund C. Tarbell, Instructor of the Class in Painting, was a member of the International Jury of Award, which placed him out of competition—an appointment equivalent to a gold medal. Bela L. Pratt, Instructor of the Class in Modelling, was awarded a silver medal. Philip L. Hale, Instructor in Drawing from the Cast, was awarded a bronze medal. Gold medals were awarded to two former pupils of the School, Miss Mary Crease Sears and Mr. George H. Hallowell. Silver medals were awarded to five former pupils, Mrs. Adelaide Cole Chase, Mrs. J. Montgomery Sears, and Messrs. Charles H. Davis, H. D. Murphy, and Robert Reid. Bronze medals were awarded to three former pupils, Messrs. H. D. Murphy, Robert D. Ganley, and Leslie P. Thompson. The latter is the present holder of the Paige Scholarship.
